

CORPORATION OFFICIAL'S WEDDING.

The wedding was solemnised on Wednesday, at Rushall Parish Church, of Mr. Leonard G. Gameson, only son of Mr. George Gameson, of Torquay (late of Walsall), and Miss Doris Margaret Breeze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Breeze, of Westbourne Road. The Rev. A. Dawson officiated, and the bride, tastefully dressed in white charmeuse, draped with lace, wearing a coronet of orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of roses, was given away by her father. There were two bridesmaids, Miss Cissie Gameson (sister) and Miss Dorothy Larkin. They wore dresses of biscuit crepe de Chine with hats to match, and gold brooches, given them by the bridegroom. The duties of best man were carried out by Mr. P. E. Boot. The bridegroom is well known in Walsall, where he holds the position of assistant rate collector, and the bride also has been connected with the department. The honeymoon is being spent at Weston-super-Mare.
